

KENTUCKY FARM LICENSE PLATE – VOLUNTARY DONATION
TOP COUNTY SUMMARY FOR 2012

Top 10 Counties in Total Donations

1. Allen - $16,860.00
2. Fayette - $14,260.00
3. Jefferson - $13,840.00
4. Bullitt - $13,340.00
5. Hardin - $11,790.00
6. Muhlenberg - $10,220.00
7. Daviess – 9,390.00
8. Warren - $9,336.29
9. Logan - $8,530.00
10. Madison - $7,690.00

Top 10 Counties as a percentage of Farm Licenses sold & renewed in the county

1. Bell – 100%
2. Fayette – 94.88%
3. Breathitt – 92.62%
4. Jefferson – 87.93%
5. Bullitt – 81.19%
6. Johnson – 80.64%
7. Martin – 78.41%
8. Elliott – 77.96%
9. Pike – 76.11%
10. Oldham – 73.37%

Number of County's to increase or decrease in donation totals in 2012 compared to 2011

- 74 County's increased donations
- 45 County's decreased donations
- 1 County was even with fiscal year 2011

Top 10 County's to increase donations based on the percentage of donations to tag numbers

1. Lyon – 55.02% (4.63% to 59.65%)
2. Martin – 40.31% (38.10% to 78.41%)
3. McCreary – 39.26% (12.47% to 51.73%)
4. Johnson – 27.17% (53.47% to 80.64%)

5. Muhlenberg – 26.83% (37.89% to 64.72%)
6. Perry – 23.69% (30.62% to 54.31%)
7. Jessamine – 19.7% (26.46% to 46.16%)
8. Union – 16.71% (6.0% to 22.71%)
9. Fleming – 13.01% (3.0% to 16.01%)
10. Rowan – 12.98% (48.0% to 60.98%)

County's with a $1,000 or more increase in donations over fiscal year 2011 (28 County's)

Adair	Bourbon	Boyle	Calloway
Cumberland	Daviess	Edmonson	Fleming
Grant	Grayson	Hardin	Henry
Jessamine	Johnson	Lyon	Marion
McCreary	Metcalfe	Muhlenberg	Nelson
Ohio	Pendleton	Pulaski	Taylor
Trigg	Union	Washington	Webster

County's with a 50% or higher donation rate to tags sold & renewed

Allen	Bell	Breathitt	Bullitt
Elliott	Fayette	Jefferson	Johnson
Kenton	Lyon	Martin	McCreary
Muhlenberg	Oldham	Perry	Pike
Rowan			